PROFILE

At my core I'm someone who has a variety of diverse interests, with an exceptional ability to focus on a process to achieve to a very high level.

I believe that my goal oriented-ability to hone in on a particular area, be it athletics or math, coupled with my sales experience, makes me both a strong independent contributor as well as a collaborator towards a common goal.

I attribute my successes to my ability to deeply understand the root of processes and manipulate them to find the most efficient process to achieve a targeted outcome.
