PROFILE

My passion for psychology and working with people in hospitality has driven me to explore other avenues that bond analytics with creativity.

Katarina Cheley

Strong understanding of Marketing, Social Media and Brand Management. I am organized, dependable and a quick learner. My strengths include excellent interpersonal and communication skills and the ability to collaborate with others to come up with solutions and resolve issues. Having the opportunity to intern in several different departments has enabled me to develop a broad set of skills, and a deeper understanding of business models as a whole.

Capstone Project - BEAUTY CYCLE

BeautyCycle: convenient recycling services for cosmetic products. Alleviates the task of sorting through ambiguous materials.
