

Kaitlin Bustos

DATA/STATISTICS/ANALYTICS

kaitlinbustos@gmail.com
403-477-0472
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/kaitlinbustos/>

PROFILE

I am driven by the potential to solve complex problems and discover meaningful insights using data. My academic background in addition to my experience working within various fields fosters critical thinking and analytical expertise. I am eager to utilize my skills and abilities to make an impact in the future.

EXPERIENCE

Relief Worker | Hollyburn Family Services

June 2019 - Jan 2020, Vancouver, BC

- Built positive relationships among youth with Autism and provided support for clients to function independently.
- Demonstrated attention to detail and communication skills by providing daily written clinical reports.
- Collaborated with the clinical team and provided input into assessments and youth care plans.

Hostess | Village Taphouse

May 2018 - Aug 2018, Vancouver, BC

Pro Shop Attendant | Livingstone Golf Course

May 2017 - Aug 2017, Calgary, AB

EDUCATION

BrainStation | Diploma, Data Science

June 2020 - Sept 2020, Vancouver, BC

University of Victoria | BSc Psychology, Minor Statistics

Sept 2016 - April 2020, Victoria, BC.

SKILLS

Databases: SQL

Programming: Python, R

Data Visualization: Tableau, Matplotlib

Statistics: Hypothesis Testing, Parametric & Non-Parametric tests

Machine Learning: Supervised and Unsupervised Learning

PROJECTS

Prediction and Analysis of Psychiatric Medication Effectiveness

July 2020 - Sept 2020, BrainStation

Predicting patient prognosis from psychiatric survey and pharmacology data using various methods of analysis along with machine learning models.

The Benefit of Community Involvement among Older Adults

Feb 2020 - April 2020, University of Victoria

Scientific research report investigating the effect of community involvement on well being and social engagement levels among elderly individuals residing in Victoria, BC.